

Did you feel as if the experience you had with KEYS helped you with future research?

How do you think KEYS helped you in ways other than research?

Why did you choose to continue to pursue a career in research or why is research appealing to you?